

THE MALAYSIAN CURRENT LAW JOURNAL [2009] 10 CLJ

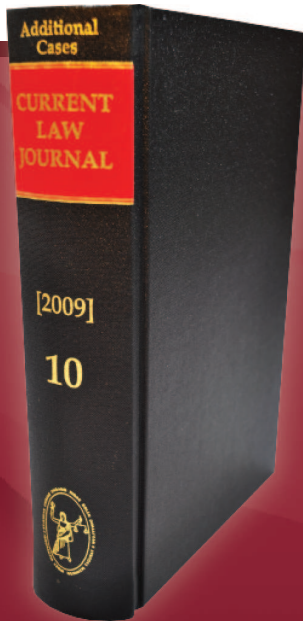

We are happy to announce the thirteenth release of the CLJ Additional Cases Series, known as “[2009] 10 CLJ”.

This publication of the additional volume is necessary as a result of the increasing number of judgments that are being delivered by our courts today. In 2009, we received more than 1600 judgments from the country’s superior courts, out of which we reported approximately 480 via our Current Law Journal and Current Law Journal Supplementary Series. This additional volume, thus, signifies our effort to reduce the number of unreported judgments lying by the corridor of justice.

The 2009 Additional Cases Series is a compilation of 60 selected judgments from the High Court of Malaya and the High Court of Sabah & Sarawak, touching on a myriad of significant legal issues within the subject indexes of Administrative Law, Arbitration, Banking, Bankruptcy, Civil Procedure, Company Law, Contract, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Hire Purchase, Land Law, Legal Profession, Native Law and Custom, Tort and Trusts among others.

Assuredly, the 2009 CLJ Volume 10 will go a long way in providing the judicial and legal fraternity with a valuable source of case materials on Malaysian law.
